A Dedication: Mr. William Richter

The Class of 2003 is proud to dedicate its yearbook to Mr. William Richter, our "Teacher Who Inspires" award recipient. Mr. Richter's dedication to his students and to his profession is truly awe inspiring. We thank him for all of his work on our behalf and for teaching us the joy of music. We wish him continued success.

We Salute You . . .

Seven highly educated, skilled, and talented faculty member retire at the end of the 2003 school year. Each has served the Scituate schools for at least thirty years and three, Catherine Ahearn, Marie Doyle, and Lawrence McGonagle, have taught at Scituate High School for thirty five years. These teachers will be missed. On behalf of all of the students who have had the good fortune to have met these dedicated teachers during their time at SHS, the Class of 2003 says thank you and wishes each retiree joy and happiness in their new adventures.

Our Advisors

Lawrence McGonagle and Catherine Ahearn, our advisors senior year.

Catherine Ahearn and Christine Berman, our advisors freshman, sophomore, and junior years.

As we journeyed through Scituate High School, our advisors were there to help us come together as a class. But it was Mrs. Catherine Ahearn who was there to guide us every step of the way. Mrs. Ahearn and Mrs. Berman saw us through freshman year to our junior prom at the Long Wharf Marriott in Boston. They motivated us to sell Sally Foster wrapping paper and the proceeds from our sales financed our many activities. And our senior year with its many activities was very special thanks to Mrs. Ahearn and Mr. Lawrence McGonagle. The Class of 2003 salutes our advisors and we thank them for helping us to make such great memories.

Music

From hip-hop to electronica, pop to rock, no one musical genre dominated the airwaves and headphones of America. The year saw new albums from Moby, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Eminem, Leann Rimes and many more. Kelly Clarkson's career as a chanteuse took off, Lance Bass was grounded as a cosmonaut, Ozzy showed why he's an iron man, and Triumph marked his territory at the VMAs.

Forget East Coast vs. West Coast

It's rapper versus puppet as Triumph the Insult Comic Dog has a run-in with Eminem's posse on MTV's Video Music Awards.

Britney not so caliente

The divine Miss Spears is booed in Mexico City after she bails her concert just four songs in.

Still red hot

Flea and Anthony continue to assault eardrums and find creative uses for socks on the new Chili Peppers album, "By the Way."

Don't tell Elvis...

Kelly Clarkson becomes the first "American Idol" and hits #1 on the Billboard singles chart.

Bye bye bye!

Lance Bass trains to become the first member of a boy band in orbit. But when he fails to pony up the $20 million fee, the Russians say "nyet!" and send him home.

Something to Crow about

Sheryl Crow performs at the One World, One Child Benefit Concert in Beverly Hills.

Science

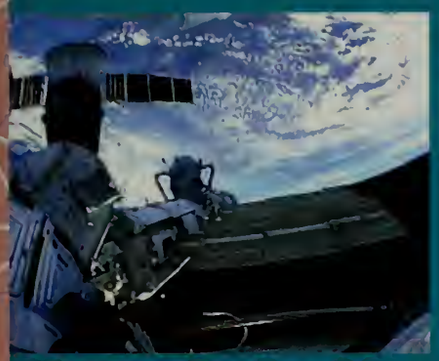
The past year might be remembered as the one in which science fiction met science fact. Our good friends in the white lab coats discovered that dogs could count, fish could walk, and sharks really wanted nothing to do with zebras. Who knew? Humans made a few headlines as well, with balloonist Steve Fossett circling the globe at several thousand feet and the space station crew circling it just a bit higher.

Zebra, king of the ocean?

Scientists discover that great white sharks are repelled by zebra striping.

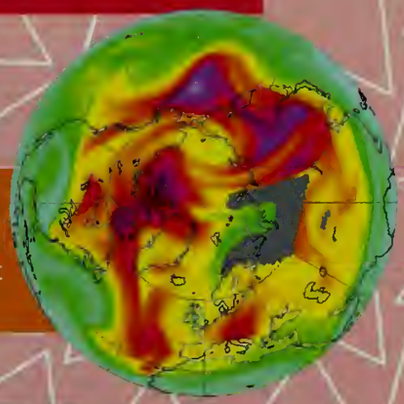
Around the world in 14 days

After some 21,000 miles and two weeks aloft, Steve Fossett becomes the first person to circumnavigate the globe in a balloon.



A long way for pizza delivery

The International Space Station receives its fifth three-person crew, who live and work in orbit for four straight months.



Well, that's disturbing

Meteorologists discover that the Antarctic ozone hole has divided into two parts that are spreading away from each other.

The dog did my homework

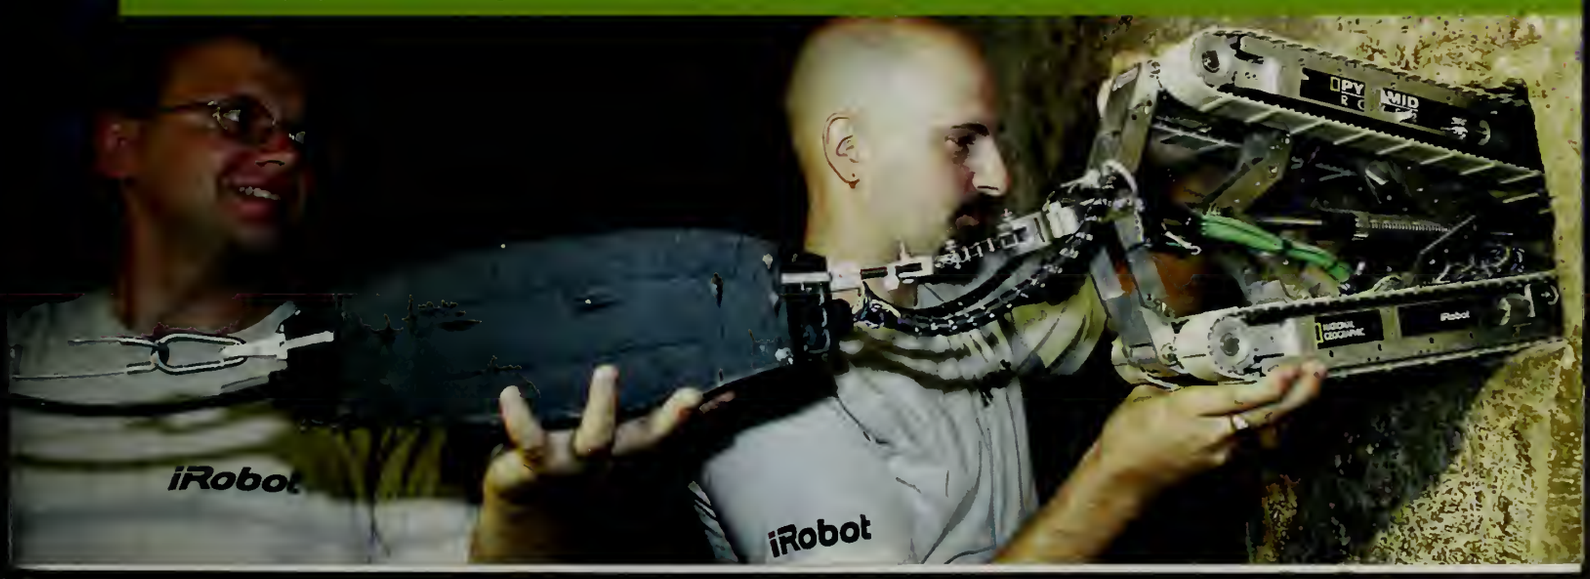
Researchers at UC-Davis theorize that dogs have basic math skills, including the ability to count. No word on differential calculus.

That's even more disturbing

The snakehead, a.k.a. the "Frankenfish", is discovered in eight U.S. states. The Chinese fish can walk on land and decimate native ecosystems.

Walk like an Egyptian

Scientists employ a camera-toting robot to enter a previously inaccessible secret chamber of Egypt's Great Pyramid.



Trends

Styles past and future, cheap and chic blended to make the year interesting for the trend-conscious. Denim made a comeback for the 287th time in history, while new electronic devices offered functionality that James Bond would envy. Not to mention that the modern look of Starck and Oldham hit traditional department stores, surfers hit suburbia, and lots of teen girls happily got mud on their faces.

It's, like, totally exfoliating!

Seventeen magazine opens its first spa dedicated exclusively to teens just outside of Dallas, Texas. www.seventeenspa.com

Who cares if we live in Ohio?

Surf/skate fashion is cool, with brands such as Ezekiel, Hurley, and BC Ethic making a big splash on the half-pipe.

Feeling blue?

Denim is in, from jean jackets to hip-huggers, hats to handbags.

Fire up those synapses

Gaming goes to the next level with Gamester's massively customizable Xbox Reflex Arcade Stick.

You will be integrated

High-tech worlds converge as new devices blend capabilities of the cell phone, MP3 player, camera, and PDA.

It's pronounced "Tar-zhay"

International designers Todd Oldham and Philippe Starck bring their unique looks to products at Target.

Television

The blue light continued to mesmerize viewers with lots of big departures, epic celebrations, and naughty puppets. The cast of "Friends" waved so long to their $1-million-per-episode contracts (or did they?), while "SNL" lost its #1 George Dubya impersonator. NBC dominated the Emmy Awards, Fox dominated the market for Comedies Set Three Decades Ago, and "Crank Yankers" made us all afraid to pick up that phone call.

Simon says...

Kelly Clarkson, Justin Guarini, and Nikki McKibbin vie for the top spot on "American Idol: The Search for a Superstar."

Bell-bottoms, bell-bottoms everywhere...

The Fox hit "That 70s Show" celebrates its 100th episode with a flurry of polyester and feathered hair.

Bad puppet! Bad, bad, puppet!

Never let a puppet use your calling card—"Crank Yankers" debuts on Comedy Central.

Gimme an L! Gimme an A T E R!

Will Farrell jumps the "SNL" ship and takes his cheerleader sweater with him. Let's hope it's not for "Another Night at the Roxbury."

The Emmy Awards

Conan O'Brien hosts as NBC wins big with 24 awards, including nods to "Friends" and "The West Wing."

Friends no more?

Joey, Rachel, and the rest of the "Friends" weigh whether to return for one more season of their insanely successful show.

News

America spent much of the year remembering those lost in last year's terrorist attacks and studying ways to bolster national security. Congress and President Bush debated responses to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and allegations that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was building weapons of mass destruction. Meanwhile, forest fires raged across Arizona and other states, threatening thousands of homes and millions of acres of parkland.

Election 2002

Republicans keep control of the House and regain the Senate, while the Democrats pick up additional gubernatorial offices.

Sniper suspects

Police apprehend John Allen Muhammad and John Lee Malvo and charge them with killing ten people in the Washington, D.C., area

National tragedy

Space Shuttle Columbia launches on a tragic mission. All seven crew members are lost after the vehicle disintegrates upon re-entry. February 1, 2003

Arizona ablaze

Firefighters across the southwestern U.S. battle intense forest fires fueled by severe drought.

Fighting terrorism at home

President Bush and Congress consider the creation of a Homeland Security Office to combat domestic terrorism.

E3

The world's foremost video-game developers test-drive the hottest titles before they hit the shelves at L.A.'s Electronic Entertainment Expo.

Movies

The word in Hollywood? Sequels. Samuel L. Jackson and a digitized Yoda drew their light sabers for "Star Wars Episode II," while the fellowship continued its dangerous mission in the follow-up to "The Lord of the Rings." Will and Tommy Lee kept the universe safe for another summer as Mike Myers went for another groovalicious turn as Austin Powers. There were also a few original flicks, including a sci-fi thriller from Steven Spielberg and new creepiness from the director of "The Sixth Sense" and "Unbreakable."

When good Jedis go bad

"Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones" continues the saga of Anakin Skywalker's fall to the dark side.

"The Two Towers"

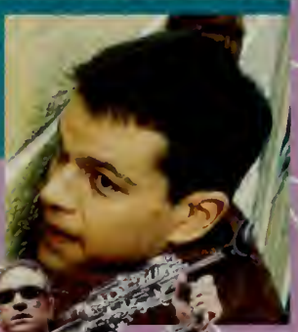
Elijah Woods is back with furry feet and dangerous cargo in the second installment of "The Lord of the Rings" trilogy.

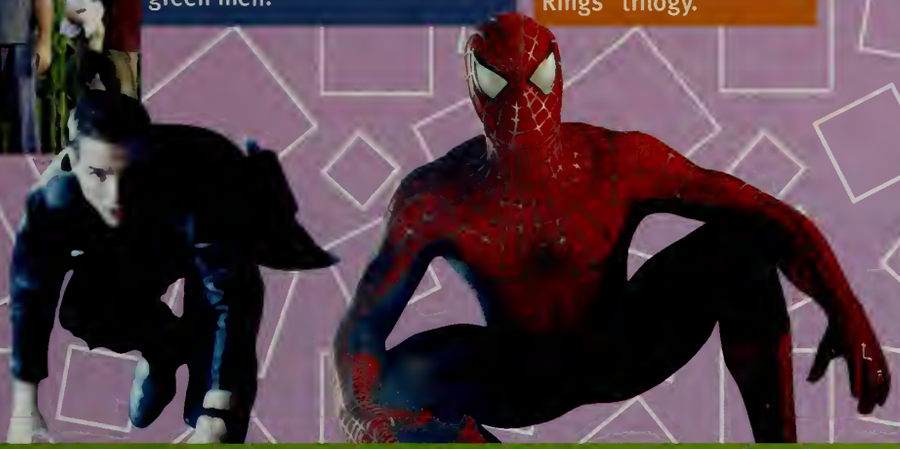
Do you see the "Signs?"

Mel Gibson stars in M. Night Shyamalan's imaginative tale of crop circles and little green men.

Bourne clueless

Matt Damon battles amnesia and bad men with guns in "The Bourne Identity."





Prelude to a pre-crime

Tom Cruise must prove his innocence in Steven Spielberg's "Minority Report."

Once bitten...

As "Spider-man," Tobey Maguire discovers that with friends like Willem Dafoe, you really don't need enemies.

Back in black

Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones suit up to save the planet...again...in "Men in Black II."

Oh, behave!

Mike Myers and Beyonce Knowles get their retro groove on for the third Austin Powers movie, "Goldmember."

Sports

It was another big year for world and U.S. sports. Fans across the globe stayed up late, got up early, and tuned in to live broadcasts of the World Cup from Japan and Korea. Ronaldo helped Brazil hoist the Copa Mundial after a disappointing loss to France four years earlier. Americans had their fair share of epic victories as well, with Lance rolling through the Champs-Elysées ahead of his European rivals and Serena Williams dominating the world tennis scene.

Trauma centers on alert

Gravity...and the human instinct for self-preservation...are defied once again as the X-Games roll onto ESPN.

No strikes, just strikeouts

Major League Baseball avoids a strike while the Anaheim Angels beat the S.F. Giants in 7 games to win the World Series.

Sibling rivalry

The Williams sisters take the #1 and #2 spots in world tennis rankings.

Three-for-all

The L.A. Lakers earn their third set of championship rings in as many years.

Viva Brazil!

Brazil captures its sixth World Cup title, while the United States advances to the quarterfinals by beating Mexico.

16,726 plus 1

Cowboys running back Emmitt Smith breaks Walter Payton's all-time rushing record.

Unstoppable

American cyclist Lance Armstrong rides to his fourth consecutive Tour de France victory.

Super Bowl Champs!

Tampa Bay Buccaneers beat the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to win Super Bowl XXXVII.
